

Which countries have the highest amount of purchases of MPEG audio file?

We can see that the USA has the highest number of purchases (422) of the MPEG audio file across all countries.

Austria has the lowest number of purchases (25), which is only 5.9% of the number of purchases in the USA.

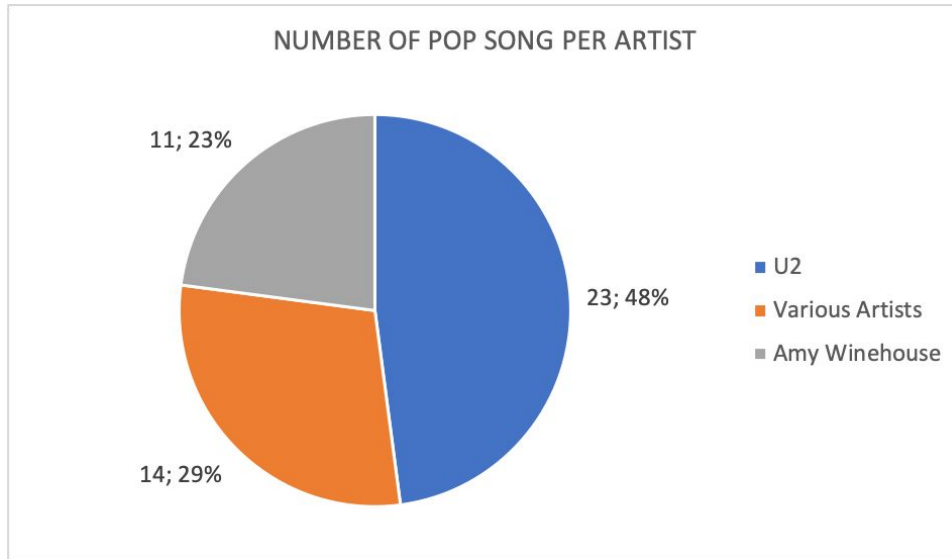

Which employees support the most customers?

We can see from the chart that Jane Peacock supports the largest number of customers (21 customers).

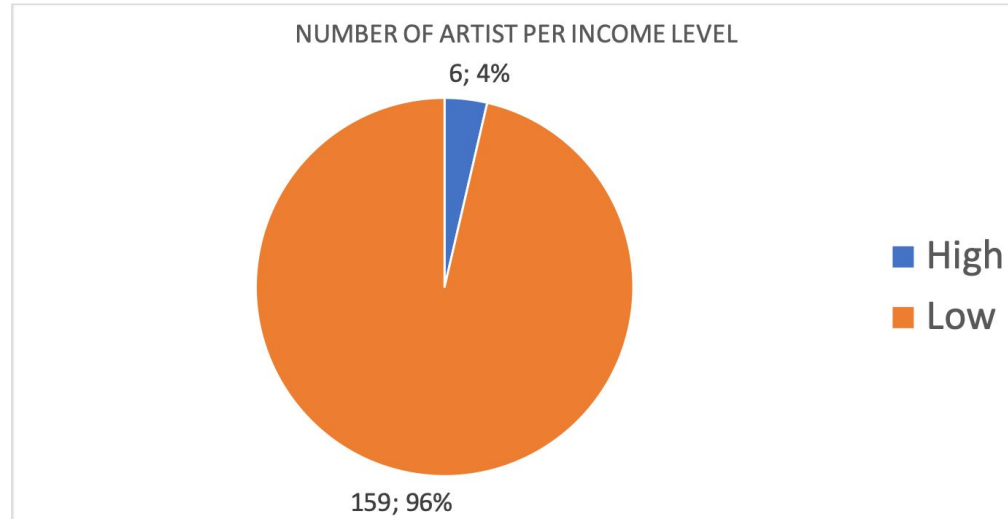

Steve Johnson supports the lowest number of customers, which is only 3 customers less than Jane Peacock.

Which artists have the largest number of pop songs?

Three artists have pop songs in the dataset. U2 is the artist that has the largest number of pop songs among all artists with 23 songs, accounted for 48%.

How many artists are there per each income level (with the income from the music store higher than the average artist income considered as "High", equal to the average as "Average" and lower than average as "Low")?

96% of the artists earn less than the average artist income from the music store. Only 4% of them earn more than the average artist income and is considered as having High income.